WINE COUNTRY NETWORK AND
PUEBLO BONITO OCEANFRONT RESORTS & SPAS
PRESENT FIRST-EVER CABO SAN LUCAS INTERNATIONAL WINE
FESTIVAL JANUARY 16-19, 2008

DENVER, CO (July 16, 2007) - Wine Country Network, a multi-platform media & event management company targeting culinary tourists, has announced that it has entered into an agreement with Pueblo Bonito Oceanfront Resorts & Spas to produce an annual International Wine & Cuisine Festival at three Pueblo Bonito resorts in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. Located at the tip of Mexico's 1,000-mile long Baja California peninsula, and just a short flight from most U.S. international airports, Cabo San Lucas offers a perfect combination of warm, balmy weather, a wealth of outdoor activities, and spectacular scenery, creating the perfect tropical location for hosting this exciting new event.

The four-day 2008 Cabo San Lucas International Wine Festival, to be held January 16-19 at Pueblo Bonito's Pacifica, Sunset Beach, and Rose Resorts, will feature a welcome reception, six educational seminars, guided-tastings of limited release wines, mixology lessons, cooking demonstrations, a Wines of Mexico Grand Buffet & Tasting and a Grand Tasting of International Wines. In addition, participating vintners will host optional "Vintners' Wine Pairing Dinners" at Pueblo Bonito's fine dining restaurants.
